Sweden objects to the withdrawal of ISO/IEC TR 14652 since it is in common daily use by tens of milion users all over the world via its implementation in Linux, and it is unusual to withdraw ISO standards in wide use. Also TR 14652 is quite referenced - a search on Google gives more than 35,000 hits. TR 14652 is also referenced from other ISO standards, including ISO 15897.
